STAMPATO IN TICINO

Welcome to Ticino.

"Here the sun is more intense,
warmer and the mountains are redder,
chestnuts, vines, almonds and figs are grown here and the inhabitants are good, educated and kind…"

Hermann Hesse, Nobel prize winner for literature in 1946.

Ascona – Locarno. The pleasures of the dolce vita.

Monte Gambarogno.

The hills, valleys and mountains surrounding Lake Maggiore are the ideal destination to practice hiking. The particularly mild climate favours the growth of exotic flowers and plants with unusual colours and inebriating fragrance. The ascent to Monte Gambarogno is one of the delightful excursions proposed and is well marked: you will remain fascinated at every instant of the climb by the beautiful landscape extending across the valleys, the lakes and the Ticino Alps, starting from the lakeside up to the summit situated at 1,734 metres above sea level.
